May 29th, 2014

Dear Korean Society of Hematology Members,

Thank you for supporting ISH2014 and announcing the information to your colleagues. But, according to the statistic data of registration in the website of ISH up to now, the number of registraters in your conuntry is only one. Therefore, we would like to ask you for kind help to announce repeatedly the information of this meeting to your society colleagues and ask them to join in the meeting. We hope you can introduce some of your colleagues to submit their papers on the website www.ish2014.org. All the participants who are under the age of 45 have a good opportunity to compete for Travel Award. We will give your society one or two Travel Awards according to the number of your abstracts submitted. The travel award is 500$. Then the winner will give an oral presentation in the congress. In addition, we provide three-night accommodation and registration fee for free. And the deadline of the submitting abstract and applying for the Travel Award has been extended to the 30th June.

Your contributions will not be only mutual benefits but also help to make this event a great success.

Best regards,
Sincerely,

Xiao-Jun Huang
